

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO.: SC00-2226

INQUIRY CONCERNING A

JUDGE NO. 00-143: CYNTHIA A. HOLLOWAY

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Special Counsel respectfully requests an extension of time of one week, until March 18, 2002 within which to file her Answer Brief and response to Judge Holloway's motion to dismiss, and as grounds states:

1. The Answer Brief and response to motion to dismiss are currently due March 11, 2002.

2. Special Counsel filed her notice of appearance in this matter on October 12, 2001. Due to what is clearly an oversight on the part of Judge Holloway's counsel, the undersigned was left off the service list for both the Judge's initial brief, and motion, and thus received these pleadings late.

3. In addition, the undersigned has been involved in several other appellate matters. These included preparation for oral arguments before the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeal on February 26, 2002 in Pantropic vs. Fireman's Fund, Case No.: 01-15110; and on February 28, 2002 in International Cosmetics Exchange vs. Gapardis, Case No.: 01-16495. (App. "A").

Undersigned is also scheduled to appear before this Court on March 6, 2002 in the case of Ricks vs. Loyola, Case No.: 01-793. Undersigned seeks a brief one week extension of time to file her pleadings as a result of these other matters.

3. Undersigned counsel contacted Judge Holloway's attorney, Scott Tozian, Esq., who objects to the requested extension. (App. "B").

4. Special Counsel certifies that this motion is being made in good faith and not for purposes of delay.

WHEREFORE, Special Counsel respectfully requests an order granting an extension of time until March 18, 2002 within which to file the Answer Brief and her response to Judge Holloway's motion to dismiss.

Respectfully submitted,
